1. D: 3 months

Suspension is 3 months for a first violation, 6 months for a second within 36 months, and 1 year for a third within 36 months. (Driving on a Suspended or Revoked License, page 64)

2. C: Suspended 1 year

Failure to stop at a crash with only vehicle damage brings a 1-year suspension; injury, serious injury or death bring 3, 5 and 10-year revocations. (Failure to Stop at a Crash, page 72)

3. D: Revoked 10 years, not counting time in prison

Failure to stop at a crash involving a death results in a 10-year revocation, not including time incarcerated. (Failure to Stop at a Crash, page 72)

4. A: Traffic Survival School and possible 30-day suspension

First offense: Traffic Survival School and your license may be suspended for 30 days; a second within 24 months is a Class 1 misdemeanor with a 12-month suspension. (Road Rage and Aggressive Driving, page 60)

5. D: Two

Aggressive driving involves speeding plus two listed violations such as failure to obey signals, passing on the right, unsafe lane change, following too close or failure to yield to emergency vehicles, creating an immediate hazard. (Road Rage and Aggressive Driving, page 60)

6. A: Two or more convictions for reckless driving or racing

Two or more convictions for reckless driving, or for racing on the highway, lead to suspension of your driving privilege. (License Revocation, page 62)

7. B: Two or more DUI convictions

Revocation offenses include vehicle homicide, felonies with a vehicle, failure to stop and render aid, two or more DUIs, aggravated DUI and causing death or serious injury. (License Revocation, page 62)

8. A: $20

You must pay the appropriate application fee and a $20 reinstatement fee, and may need to file an SR-22. (License Revocation, page 61)

9. C: 90 days

Anyone who had a seizure in the 90 days before applying for a license must report it to MVD. (Medical Restrictions, page 61)

10. A: When the driver's privilege is suspended or revoked, among other cases

Impound or immobilization applies when the driver is suspended or revoked, has never been licensed, lacks a required IID, or lacks insurance and is in a crash. (Vehicle Impound, page 62)

11. C: Seven months total

Staying in Arizona for a total of seven months or more in a calendar year means you must get an Arizona license, wherever your permanent home is. (Resident Definition, page 10)

12. D: 15 days

You have 15 days after buying or receiving a vehicle to apply for its Arizona title. (Applying for a Title and Registration, page 18)

13. D: In the vehicle whenever you operate it

Carry proof of current insurance in the vehicle every time you drive; officers ask for it at traffic stops and crashes. (Vehicle Insurance, page 9)
