1. C: The outer edge of the roadway

A solid white line along the side of the roadway tells the driver where the outer edge is located. (Fog Line and Lane Lines, page 43)

2. B: You may cross to change lanes when safe; traffic moves in the same direction

A dashed white line between lanes indicates you may cross to change lanes when safe; these lines separate same-direction traffic. (White Lane Markings, page 43)

3. D: You may cross to pass if there is no opposing traffic

A broken yellow line between opposing lanes indicates you may cross to pass if there is no opposing traffic. (Yellow Lane Markings, page 43)

4. B: Passing is prohibited for traffic in either direction

A solid double yellow line means passing is prohibited for vehicles traveling in either direction. (Yellow Lane Markings, page 43)

5. C: Yes, if no opposing traffic is approaching the turn site

A driver may cross a solid yellow line to turn into a driveway if there is no opposing traffic approaching. (Yellow Lane Markings, page 43)

6. B: As part of the maneuver to merge into traffic, but not as an acceleration lane

A vehicle turning left from an intersecting street or driveway may use the center turn lane to gain access or merge, but not as an acceleration lane. (Shared Center Lane, page 44)

7. A: The right lane except to pass; the center lane if there is a lot of merging traffic

Remain in the right lane except to pass; if there is a lot of merging traffic, use the center lane. (Unmarked Lanes: General Driving, page 44)

8. D: Only when directed by a police officer

Never drive on the shoulder of any street or road unless directed by a police officer. (Unmarked Lanes: General Driving, page 44)

9. C: Proceed to a safe turnaround area

Never back up in a travel lane; it is illegal and unsafe. Proceed to a safe turnaround area. (Unmarked Lanes: General Driving, page 44)

10. D: When passing, when other lanes are closed or unsafe, or when preparing to exit on the left

The left lane may be used only to overtake and pass, when other lanes are closed or in disrepair, or when preparing to exit on the left. (Left Lane on a Multilane Highway for Passing Only, page 75)

11. D: Passing slower vehicles

On multi-lane roads, the leftmost lane is intended to be used to pass slower vehicles. (Unmarked Lanes: Passing, page 44)

12. D: No; never pass on the shoulder, paved or not

Never pass on the shoulder, whether it is paved or not; other drivers will not expect you there. (Unmarked Lanes: Passing, page 44)

13. B: The lane closest to your direction of travel

When there are no signs or lane markings, turn into the lane closest to the direction of travel. (Turning, page 45)

14. D: The driver behind may think you are turning left and try to pass on the right

A wide turn may cause the driver behind to think you are changing lanes or turning left and try to pass you on the right. (Turning: Right Turns, page 45)

15. A: Cutting the corner

When turning left, avoid cutting the corner; you could hit a vehicle approaching from the left. Leave room for oncoming vehicles to turn left. (Turning: Left Turns, page 45)

16. D: The right

At an intersection with no stop sign or signal, drivers must yield to vehicles approaching from the right. (Right of Way at Stop Signs, page 51)

17. B: The driver who reached the intersection first, after a complete stop

At 3-way, 4-way and all-way stops, the driver reaching the intersection first goes first after making a complete stop. (Right of Way at Stop Signs, page 52)

18. C: Only when you can get through it without having to stop

Drivers may not enter an intersection unless they can get through it without stopping; wait so you do not block the intersection. (General Right of Way Rules, page 52)

19. A: The passing driver must yield to the vehicle being passed

A driver passing a vehicle traveling in the same direction must yield to the vehicle being passed, which may turn left or stop for a hazard. (General Right of Way Rules: Passing, page 52)

20. B: Pedestrians using a guide dog or carrying a white cane

Pedestrians using a guide dog or carrying a white cane have absolute right-of-way; do not use your horn, as it could confuse them. (Intersections- Right of Way: Pedestrians, page 47)

21. A: Drivers already in the circle

Drivers entering a traffic circle or rotary must yield to drivers already in the circle. (Intersections- Right of Way: Left Turns, page 47)

22. A: 18 inches or less

When parallel parking, your vehicle should be 18 inches or less from the curb; parking more than 18 inches from the curb is prohibited. (Parking Tips, page 53)

23. C: No closer than 15 feet

Do not park within fifteen feet of a fire hydrant. (Do Not Park, page 54)

24. C: No closer than 20 feet

Do not park within twenty feet of a crosswalk at an intersection. (Do Not Park, page 54)

25. C: 30 feet

Do not park within thirty feet of a traffic signal, stop sign, or yield sign. (Do Not Park, page 54)
