From the Idaho Driver's Handbook. Free at permitpracticetestdmv.com/idaho/

1. B: 30 days

Idaho gives new residents 30 days after they begin living in the state to get an Idaho license, even if their old license hasn't expired. (New Residents, page 4)

2. B: 15

You can be licensed in Idaho at 15, but if you're under 17 you must complete approved driver training and the GDL program. (Introduction, page 3)

3. B: 14½

Driver Training permits allow anyone 14½ and under 17 to attend a public or private driver training program. (Driver Training Permits, page 15)

4. B: Only a driver's training instructor

During driver's ed, a DT permit only lets you drive when a driver training instructor is with you. (Driver Training Permits, page 15)

5. D: Applicants 17 or older, with a licensed adult 18 or older

Class D Instruction Permits let applicants 17 or older practice for one year with a licensed adult (18+). (Class D Instruction Permits, page 16)

6. D: One year

The Class D Instruction Permit allows practice for one year. (Class D Instruction Permits, page 16)

7. B: A licensed driver at least 21 is in the front seat beside them

Under 16, travel is daylight only unless a licensed driver at least 21 sits in the front seat beside you. (Restriction When Under 16, page 16)

8. B: 5:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. local time

Daylight is defined as 5:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. local time. (Restriction When Under 16, page 16)

9. C: Not more than one

During the first 6 months, passengers under 17 are limited to not more than one, unless related by blood, adoption or marriage. (Restriction When Under 17, page 16)

10. B: Five days after the 18th birthday

If you are 15 to 17, your license shows 'Under 18 until...' and expires five days after your 18th birthday. (Under 18 and 21 Years of Age, page 17)

11. B: 6 months

Teens in the GDL program must drive under supervision for at least 6 months with no violations before they can be licensed. (Graduated Driver's License (GDL) Program, page 19)

12. B: A licensed driver at least 21 in the front seat beside the driver

You must be accompanied by a licensed driver at least 21 in the front seat beside you, with no other front-seat passengers. (Graduated Driver's License (GDL) Program, page 19)

13. C: 50 hours, 10 at night

You must accumulate at least 50 hours of supervised driving, ten of them at night. (Graduated Driver's License (GDL) Program, page 19)

14. B: The permit is canceled and the 6-month period starts over with a new permit

The permit is canceled, you must reapply, and the minimum 6 months starts over. (Graduated Driver's License (GDL) Program, page 19)

15. C: 30 hours classroom, 6 hours observation and 6 hours behind the wheel

Approved driver training has 30 hours classroom, 6 hours observing other students in the car, and 6 hours behind the wheel. (Driver Training, page 19)

16. D: A parent or legal guardian (or a spouse 18+ if the applicant is married)

A parent or legal guardian signs and assumes legal responsibility; a married applicant's spouse 18+ may sign. (Liability Signer (If Under 18), page 26)

17. C: The department cancels the driving credential

Until you turn 18, the parent or guardian who signed for you can take back consent at any time, and ITD will then cancel your credential. (Liability Signer (If Under 18), page 26)

18. C: Verification of School Compliance (enrollment/attendance) or a diploma/GED

Drivers under 18 must show they are enrolled in and attending high school or an equivalent program, or that they have already graduated (diploma or GED). (Verification of School Compliance (VOC), page 26)

19. C: 30 days

Idaho requires you to report a new address to ITD no later than 30 days after you move. (Address Change, page 29)

20. A: Up to 25 months before expiration

Once you are 21 or older you can renew in person as early as 25 months ahead of expiration (not available to CDL holders with a hazmat endorsement). (Renewals, page 30)

21. D: Drivers between 21 and 62

Drivers between 21 and 62 may choose the eight-year renewal. (Renewals, page 30)
