1. D: Nearly half

Nearly half of North Dakota traffic deaths involve drivers who had been drinking before the crash. (Alcohol, page 35)

2. D: Seven times

If you drink even a little, your chances of a crash are seven times greater than if completely sober. (Alcohol, page 35)

3. A: A 4-ounce glass of wine or 1 ounce of whiskey

A 12-ounce beer, a 4-ounce glass of wine and a 1-ounce glass of whiskey contain about the same alcohol. (Alcohol, page 35)

4. D: Alcohol content, time period of drinking, and lean body weight

The alcohol content, the time over which it was consumed, and the person's lean body weight influence AC. (Alcohol, page 35)

5. A: License revoked for 180 days to three years

Refusing a chemical test (or a roadside PBT) brings revocation for 180 days to three years. (Implied Consent, page 36)

6. C: .02% or more

A driver under 21 with .02% or more is considered under the influence; .08% applies to drivers 21 and over. (Driving While Under the Influence, page 36)

7. B: 91 days

A first offense in seven years brings a 91-day suspension; 180 days if AC is .18 or greater. (Driving While Under the Influence, page 36)

8. A: 180 days

A first offense with AC .18 or greater brings a 180-day suspension. (Driving While Under the Influence, page 36)

9. D: 365 days

A second offense in seven years brings 365 days; two years if AC is .18 or greater. (Driving While Under the Influence, page 36)

10. B: $500

A first conviction carries a $500 fine; with AC .16% or greater, at least $750 and two days in jail. (Driving While Under the Influence, page 36)

11. D: $1,000 fine, 10 days in jail and at least 12 months in the 24/7 Sobriety Program

A second conviction within seven years: $1,000 fine, 10 days in jail, and at least 12 months in the 24/7 Sobriety Program. (Driving While Under the Influence, page 36)

12. A: Four days mandatory minimum jail and a fine of up to $1,000

Driving while suspended or revoked after an alcohol violation brings a four-day mandatory minimum jail sentence and up to a $1,000 fine. (Driving While Under the Influence, page 36)

13. C: 90 days

Causing serious injury adds 90 days in jail; causing a death adds one year. (Driving While Under the Influence, page 37)

14. C: In the trunk

No one may drink in or on a vehicle, and any open containers must be placed in the trunk. (Open Container Law, page 37)

15. D: Report it to law enforcement by dialing 911

Anyone can report out-of-the-ordinary driving that suggests impairment to law enforcement by dialing 911. (Reporting Impaired Driving, page 37)

16. C: Proof of financial responsibility (SR-22)

Refusing a test or a DUI conviction requires proof of financial responsibility (SR-22). (Driving While Under the Influence, page 37)

17. C: Vehicles on the roadway

A pedestrian crossing where there is no crosswalk must yield to all vehicles; pedestrians have the right of way only in crosswalks. (Pedestrians, page 37)

18. A: A child may be chasing it

A ball rolling into the street tells you a child might be chasing it. (Pedestrians, page 38)

19. C: 500 feet

At night, bicycles must have a headlight visible from 500 feet and a red rear reflector. (Bicycles and Motorized Bicycles, page 38)

20. C: 12 or more

When the record shows 12 or more points, the driver is notified of intended suspension and may request a hearing. (Point System, page 40)

21. B: 7 days

12 points means a 7-day suspension; 13 and above adds 7 days for each point over 11. (Point System, page 40)

22. C: 21 days

At 13 or more points, the suspension is 7 days for each point over 11; 14 points is $3 \times 7 = 21$ days. (Point System, page 40)

23. D: One point for every three months with no points recorded

One point is removed for every three-month period without new points. (Point System, page 40)

24. A: Three

Completing an approved driver improvement course, such as defensive driving, removes three points. (Point System, page 40)

25. D: Five or less

For violations assigned five or fewer points, you may elect a driver improvement course instead of points, once every 12 months. (Point System, page 40)
