1. D: 15

At 15 you may get a Class D learner permit if you are taking or have passed an approved driver education course. (Table 1—Types of Licenses: Class D Learner Permit, page 6)

2. D: A licensed driver 21 or older sits beside them

A learner permit is valid only while a licensed driver 21 or older sits beside the driver. (Table 1—Types of Licenses, page 6)

3. C: 180 days

You must have held a learner permit for at least 180 days. (Table 1—Types of Licenses: Class D Intermediate License, page 6)

4. A: 16½

At 16 you need a driver education completion certificate; at 16½ driver education completion is not required. (Table 1—Types of Licenses: Class D Intermediate License, page 6)

5. B: Work Zone Safe

The intermediate license requires a Work Zone Safe completion certificate. (Table 1—Types of Licenses: Class D Intermediate License, page 6)

6. A: 6 months

The intermediate restriction can be removed after 6 months if you completed driver education, and after 1 year if not. (Table 1—Types of Licenses: Class D Intermediate License, page 6)

7. B: 1 year

Without driver education the intermediate restriction can be removed after 1 year. (Table 1—Types of Licenses: Class D Intermediate License, page 6)

8. A: 5 a.m. to 10 p.m.

The GDL restricts driving to 5 a.m. to 10 p.m., except for work, school, church or related activities, or with a licensed driver over 21 beside the teen. (New Graduated Driver License (GDL), page 8)

9. D: One, unless all passengers live in the same household

Teens with a restricted license are limited to one passenger unless all passengers live in the same household or a licensed driver over 21 is seated next to them. (New Graduated Driver License (GDL), page 8)

10. A: They remain at their current GDL level until 6 months from the conviction date

You remain at your current GDL level (learner or intermediate) until 6 months from the conviction date have passed. (New Graduated Driver License (GDL), page 8)

11. C: 30 classroom and 55 behind-the-wheel

Parent-Taught students must complete 30 hours of classroom training and 55 hours of behind-the-wheel training. (Parent-Taught Driver Education, page 8)

12. C: Graduated driver license (time and passenger limits)

Restriction T is the graduated driver license: driving 5 a.m. to 10 p.m. with exceptions, and passenger limits. It does not apply at 18 or older. (Restriction Codes, page 14)

13. C: Must be accompanied by a licensed driver 21 or older in the front seat

Restriction 9 means accompanied by a licensed driver 21 years of age or older in the front seat, for people learning to drive. (Restriction Codes, page 14)

Restriction B means corrective lenses, for people who must wear glasses or contacts to meet the vision requirements. (Restriction Codes, page 14)

15. B: A fine of up to $500, 6 months in jail, or both

On conviction, the penalty is a fine of up to $500 or 6 months in jail or both. Violating a restriction carries the same. (Penalties for Driving Without a Valid License, page 14)

16. A: 10 days

When you move you must notify Service Oklahoma within 10 days. (Changing Your Name and Address, page 13)

17. D: 4 or 8 years

Your license can be issued for either 4 or 8 years and expires on the last day of the month. (License Expiration and Renewal, page 13)

18. B: Up to 1 year before

You can renew it up to 1 year before the expiration date. (License Expiration and Renewal, page 13)

19. D: 18

Until you are 18 your license is probationary; Service Oklahoma may cancel or suspend it for unlawful acts, negligence or misconduct. (Probationary Period, page 13)

20. D: Both of you can be arrested

Even with a licensed driver present, it is illegal to drive without a license or permit, and both the driver and the person who lets them drive can be arrested. (Unauthorized Driving, page 13)

21. D: At least one day

If you fail the written test, by law you must wait at least one day before retesting. (What to Expect: Written Test, page 9)

22. D: Nothing; fees are collected only when you pass and the license is issued

You are not required to pay any money to take the tests; the examiner collects fees when you meet all requirements. (What to Expect, page 9)
